

DOC NYC ANNOUNCES 2022 SHORT LISTS FOR FEATURES AND SHORTS
WITH IN-PERSON FESTIVAL SCREENINGS NOV 9-17

FINAL SECTIONS OF FESTIVAL'S 13TH EDITION LINEUP REVEAL 15 FEATURES AND 15 SHORTS THAT ARE THE YEAR'S LEADING AWARDS CONTENDERS

NEW YORK, October 18, 2022 - DOC NYC, America's largest documentary festival, announced the full lineup for two of its most prestigious sections—Short List: Features and Short List: Shorts. All the films will have theatrical screenings at the festival, often with the directors in person.

“Award season voters truly have an amplitude of outstanding documentaries to consider this year,” said DOC NYC Artistic Director Jaie Laplante. “DOC NYC’s Short Lists represent our picks for those films that should go on to year-end glory.”

With these new announcements, DOC NYC will present 112 features and 124 short films in its 13th edition, running in-person November 9-17 at IFC Center, SVA Theatre and Cinépolis Chelsea and continuing online until November 27 with films available to viewers across the US.

The Short List sections showcase a selection of nonfiction features and shorts that the festival’s programming team considers to be among the year’s strongest contenders for Oscars and other awards. See below for the complete slates for each section.

SHORT LIST: FEATURES

The DOC NYC Short List for documentary features was launched in 2012 and has a long history of being a predictor of other awards—from critics’ prizes and top ten lists to the Oscars. Notable statistics:

- For nine of the last 10 years, DOC NYC has screened the documentary feature that went on to win the Academy Award.
- The festival has also screened 44 of the last 50 Oscar-nominated documentary features.

- In 2021, DOC NYC screened 11 of 15 titles that were named to the subsequent Academy Award Documentary Feature Shortlist.

DOC NYC's Short List: Features selection process is overseen by Artistic Director Jaie Laplante and Director of Special Projects Thom Powers.
