WHAT THE FEST!? CREATIVE DIRECTOR

Maria Reinup is an enthusiast of feeling alive and she believes experiencing the out of ordinary is the best way to achieve that. Devoted to organising events and figuring out shenanigans since her early school years, she studied Roman Languages and Philosophy before switching to the Baltic Film and Media school in Tallinn, Estonia for filmmaking. Working in the film industry for the past decade, she began with festival event management and shorts programming, quickly becoming director, now in her seventh year, of the Haapsalu Horror and Fantasy Film Festival, the only genre film festival in the Baltics, and programmer for Black Nights Film Festival, the only A-list art house festival in Northern Europe. Over the years she has worked for notable film festivals like SXSW and Fantasia, producing-directing short films and music videos on the side. A few years ago she moved into working with feature films and is excited to channel her experience and her love for all sorts of madness into What The Fest!?. Her special skills include curating exciting content, bringing audiences the next cool thing (can't wait to introduce Master Folk Techno to the Big Apple!) and bringing together the former Eastern Bloc and its modern fruits with New York for an unforgettable 4-day experience.
